

A RIVER RUNS THROUGH IT WITH WORLD-FAMOUS CHURNING RAPIDS

Have you ever experienced the adrenaline rush of rafting? Felt the joy of shooting the rapids with friends and family? Or enjoyed the splash of cool Snake River water on a warm day?

For 40 years, we've been expertly guiding unforgettable adventures for individuals, family and groups. Our trips run through the Grand Canyon of the Snake River, from West Table through the famous Lunch Counter, Big Kahuna and Rope Rapids, to finally coast into Sheep Gulch.

WHAT WE SUPPLY:

Paddles and Coast Guard-approved life jackets.

WHAT YOU CAN RENT:

Neoprene booties, gloves and paddling pants.

WHAT YOU SHOULD WEAR:

- On sunny days, wear lightweight shorts, T-shirts and river sandals (TEVAS or sneakers). Secure your glasses with CROAKIES or other restraining devices.
- On cool or rainy days, we recommend wool socks, fleece jackets and shorts, or lightweight pants under your rain gear.
- For the ride back to camp, we suggest leaving a towel or jacket on the bus.

TIMES:

Trips run throughout the day. Call or go online now to reserve your seat.

WHERE WE MEET:

At Snake River Park to transport you to and from the river.
